SILVER ECSTASY

Present your daughter with that unforgettable heirloom that comes with a purity and reliability guarantee. From the house of Episode, the quality name in silver products. The best part of their products is that they have a touch of modernity even as they reflect their traditional importance. They have come up with a bridal trousseau range wherein some designs are already on display while others are custom made according to the preference of the client. Alternatively you can also bring any of your family heirloom and get it replicated at most economical rates. episodesilver.com

Sweet Dreams Are Made Of These

Let your daughter remember the comfort of her old home by gifting her a large day bed from the luxurious and innovative collection from La Sorogeeeka. Their collection 'Allure Ensemble' is all about elegance and glitz and will spruce up your home in its own unique manner. The selection is available in colours like royal blue, peach orange, light beige and will give her room a vibrant look. lasorogeeeka.com

CLEAN WINDOWS IN STYLE

Your kids are starting a new life and have moved into a new home but window cleaning is a chore which is difficult to achieve so gift them WinBot, India's first window cleaning robot which can clean frameless windows, doors and vertical glass panels. It has only one outdoor unit which when placed on the glass figures out the size of the surface and then travels back and forth to clean. It is fall proof, can clean for unlimited time. ## A Wedding App

With weddings becoming full scale productions no lesser than a Karan Johar film, it is only natural that you will need a wedding application that is personalized and can be managed by you and yours to plan the most important event of your life. MC Sid and Siddharth Bajwa have come out with this amazing mobile app called BODA where you share all the information that the guests require like the theme, attire, menu, timings, weather, location, with the help of Google map and a hotline to a guest relation executive who acts as the guide for any trouble the guest might face. BODA brings to you an experience to share memorable moments with the ones you love. Myboda.in
